JETWING BLUE. NEGOMBO

Negombo features a number of cultural and historical legacies amidst the bustling beachside haunts that contribute to its popularity – for instance, the centuries-old colonial Dutch Fortress which still stands today, or perhaps more famously, the nearby Lellama Fish Market, which pays tribute to Negombo’s roots as a traditional fishing village, and continues to sell some of the best seafood Sri Lanka has to offer.

Just outside the city centre, the Angurukaramulla Temple is also worth visiting as a 300-year old Buddhist temple with ancient murals and ruins of a library.

Things to do

- Birding Trails
- Lellama Fish Market
- reacle and Toddy Production
- A fleet of catamarans and Seine fishing experience
- Negombo fair
